

Child Support Services

Our mission is to ensure that all children receive the financial and medical support they need from each parent.

Apply for Child Support

You can apply for child support by phone, email, visiting any human services location in person, or by online application (scan the QR code here).

(303) 866-4300

childsupport.state.co.us

Contact Weld County Child Support

For more information on Child Support Services of Weld County, or to apply for child support, contact us by phone, email, or visit our official website (scan the QR code here).

(970) 352-6933

childsupport@weld.gov

The Child Support Services (CSS) Division of the Weld County Department of Human Services provides help to parents and anyone caring for a child. CSS can help locate parents, establish paternity, establish a child support order and enforce child support obligations. We understand that families need support on a regular basis to remain self-sufficient.